Leadership UA Application
Fall 2014, Phase I

In the fall of 2014, Leadership UA, Phase I will be offered to any sophomores, juniors, and seniors interested in a unique leadership experience! Applications are due April 4, 2014 at 5pm to 208 Temple Tutwiler (Box 870167) or krhartley@sa.ua.edu.

Please read the following information before submitting your application. Additional questions can be directed to Kaitlin Hartley at krhartley@sa.ua.edu.

What is Leadership UA?
Leadership UA is a dynamic leadership initiative for sophomore, juniors, and seniors. The goal of the program is to develop effective and ethical leaders at The University of Alabama who are prepared to be global leaders in a variety of fields. As a three phase program, students have the opportunity to participate in Leadership UA throughout their time as a student. Leadership UA builds upon basic leadership skills and abilities and focuses on utilizing your individual strengths to develop you as a leader. Apply for Phase I today!

Phase I: Shape Your World
Phase I strives to inspire and activate students to create change and lead others to make positive differences in our campus, city, and global communities. Participants will enhance their existing skills and values and learn their personal leadership style through self-exploration and discovery. Multiple tools and assessments will be utilized throughout the phase including the Myers-Briggs Type Indicator and more! In addition, phase I will encourage active reflection and self-inventory to enhance each student’s learning experience.

What are the requirements of Leadership UA students?
- Attend ALL Leadership UA sessions beginning in the fall of 2014, Tuesday nights from 4-6 p.m. weekly. (Please plan your class schedule accordingly if you commit to this program).
- Be actively engaged members of Leadership UA and participate in the discussion and activities during each session.
- Engage in service opportunities.
- Show interest in developing as a leader and learning about leadership.

Selections Overview
Leadership UA is looking for a diverse group of students with leadership potential. You are not required to have previous experience, but we are looking for students with an interest and desire to learn and lead!
